

PERSONAL GOSSIP.

Mr. T. C. Rawlins, of Clarksville, was in town Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Feland, Jr., were in Owensboro Sunday.

Mrs. A. Y. Stevens, of Nashville, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Martin.

Miss Mary Radford is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Sugg, near Russellville.

Messrs. M. W. Adcock, of Paducah, and J. J. Hall, of Montgomery, were in the city Saturday.

Mrs. Clarence Anderson is in Princeton visiting the family of her son, Dr. Clarence Anderson.

Dr. J. B. Jackson, Ed. Higgins and W. H. Martin, all of Crofton, spent yesterday in the city.

Miss Fannie Rust has returned from a pleasant visit to Miss Jennie Richardson, at Pembroke.

Mr. Thos. H. Major returned to Owensboro yesterday, after a short visit to his family, near Beverly.

Miss Genevieve Anderson returned from Harrodsburg Saturday, where had been for several months studying art.

Mrs. Joe Foreith returned to her home in Nashville Saturday, after a short visit to the family of her father, Mr. T. M. Edmundson.

J. B. Lindsay has secured a position with W. R. Bowles, the Ninth street photographer, for the purpose of learning the business.

F. W. Robertson, of North Christian, is studying medicine under Dr. Jas. A. Young. Dr. Young has had some experience as a preceptor, having prepared Messrs. Cliff Ellis and Clarence for their final course in medicine. These gentlemen are both now practicing, the former at Cleveland, O., and the latter at Princeton.

CREAM OF NEWS.

Past Three Score and Ten.

We are indebted to Esq. S. B. Younglove for the following list of old gentlemen in the Hopkinsville district who have passed the age of three score and ten. The list embraces 38 names, of which 10 are past 80, 12 between 75 and 80 and 16 between 70 and 75. Below are the names:

James Anderson, John Anderson, A. D. Boales, D. R. Beard, D. T. Brown, Thos. Bottomley, W. H. Covington, Wm. Ellis, Sam'l Feland, R. W. Gaines, D. J. Gish, Thos. Green, L. B. Hickman, W. H. Hopson, D. J. Hooser, Burrill P. Jones, Baldie Jones, W. D. Lindsay, Y. J. Means, Hugh Nelson, Luke Nocton, Jno. O'Brien, W. W. Phipps, Newton Payne, John Pringle, W. G. L. Quaito, J. V. Rust, John Sittes, M. D. Steele, J. D. Tandy, Sam'l Starling, S. E. Trice, Geo. O. Thompson, L. T. Templeton, Kitley T. Swann, Sevier Wood, Henry Young, S. B. Younglove.

Latest From The Ghosts.

More coal is alleged to have fallen at the Quaito residence Friday night, but the spirits are gradually ceasing their operations. Only one small piece was thrown, which fell in the family room. It is said Bro. Quaito firmly believes the coal is thrown by supernatural agencies and every night prays that he may have power to solve the mystery. Mr. E. W. C. Edwards was in the house Friday night and heard the coal fall, but it was in another room.

Mr. Quarles, a tenant on the place, denies that there is any trick about it so far as his knowledge extends and says the report that he had a hand in it is untrue.

It is learned that Mr. Quaito has a dog that will let no outsider come into the yard and has to be kept chained. It might be a good idea to turn the dog loose and give him a chance at the ghost.

One Way to Grow.

The city extension election held in Clarksville Thursday, resulted in a vote of a little over two to one in favor of the proposition, there being 357 in favor and 175 against. The extension will give the city four new wards it is said, and in the election of the necessary Aldermen two of them will possibly be negroes, on account of the large number of colored people living in a part of the territory taken in. This fact made some people oppose the measure, but it was thought if they did not vote themselves in they would be forced in by legislation, hence the large vote cast for the proposition. Clarksville now covers a good portion of Montgomery county and claims to have 10,000 inhabitants.

An Accidental Shot.

Bill Stevenson, col., was shot in the left breast by his son Sunday morning. The ball entered just above the heart and ranging around came out below the shoulder, making only a flesh wound. It is claimed the shooting was accidental and the boy was not arrested.

CITY COURT NEWS.

Wesley Irvin, col., disorderly conduct, fined $5 and costs.

Thos. Harris, col., drunk and disorderly, fined $5 and costs.

Jas. Graham, drunk and disorderly, fined $5 and costs. Sent to workhouse.

Tom Thurston, Emma Carneal, and Bill Jarrett, all colored, street-walking, dismissed with orders to stay off the street.

Frank Williams, visiting house of ill fame, fined $5 and costs.

Two boys tramps were released and ordered to leave the city in twenty-four hours. They left at once.

HERE AND THERE.

Pure nestlefoot oil at 50 cents a gallon.

W. J. Williams & Son.

Mr. C. P. Nolan has moved into his new brick house on Jessup Avenue.

Buy Eureka coal of Jas. Phelps, Wheeler, Mills & Co's warehouse.

R. M. Woodbridge, livery, feed & sale stable, Fritz' stand. Telephone 144.

The dirt roads are all very muddy and in some places almost impassable.

The cold spell was severe enough to kill all of the fruit that had begun to bud out.

There is no material change in the condition of Major Rust, who was recently paralyzed.

Moseley & Tribble are paying highest prices for all cattle. Headquarters at Wyly & Burnett's.

"Jane Eyre" was presented at the Opera House last night by the Charlotte Thompson company.

The Nat Galtier Co., tobacco warehousemen, insert their card in this issue and their sales will hereafter appear regularly.

Rev. H. A. Macdonald is sick and Ed. J. E. Scobey preached at the Christian church Sunday morning. There was no preaching at night.

See the card of Messrs. Wheeler, Mills & Co., tobacco warehousemen and commission merchants, which appears elsewhere in this issue. Look out for their sales in Friday's issue.

T. K. Torian, of Cadiz, killed five hogs fourteen months old last week that aggregated 1,942 pounds, an average of 388 1/2 pounds. Also four pigs seven months old that averaged 150 pounds.

The subscriptions to the electric light project have now reached 550 lights and Mr. S. H. Turner says the plant will soon be in operation. The subscription so far is confined to the business houses.

There was no preaching at the Baptist church Sunday. Rev. Mr. Phillips, recently called as supply for five months, has declined to accept and the church is still without a pastor.

Bro. Meacham, those nine "spud" sellers did not come from our town, as you tell your readers, but from Madisonville, our "elite" county seat. The law is strictly enforced here, at least better than at any other place in Hopkins county.—Earlington Bee.

Joel Burton, a "trust" patient at the Asylum, has been made violently insane for the first time in 15 years and has to be kept confined to keep him from shedding blood. He has been trying to investigate the Quaito ghost and this is believed to be the cause of his spell.

So far as the KENTUCKIAN is advised nothing has ever been done by either the last Council or the present one in regard to the bequest of Mrs. Roach to establish a public fountain for the city. There is a limit to the bequest and unless the money is appropriated in a specified time it will go to other legacies.

At a meeting of the congregation of the First Presbyterian Church last Sunday morning, Rev. J. S. Phillips, was unanimously called as the stated supply of that church. Mr. Phillips, who is now visiting his mother in Philadelphia, will in all probability accept the call. He preached several sermons during the first of the month, and so well pleased was the congregation with him that as soon as practicable he was called.

John Pedon, of this county, who is subject to fits of insanity, became insane while on a visit to Glasgow, Ky., a few days ago. He became quite violent and with a broad-axe threatened to kill every body he came in contact with. He was finally secured and returned to this county and on Friday was examined before Judge Winfree and committed to the Western Kentucky Lunatic Asylum. Mr. Pedon's home is in the Fairview vicinity, some eight miles from the city.

Esq. Alex Campbell has in his possession a large hunting knife presented to him by Gen. Weightman, a Federal officer, several years ago. It is the same knife Weightman used when he killed P. X. Aubrey, the great western explorer and frontiersman, at Santa Fe, New Mexico, in 1851, while in a row. It is well preserved and is a formidable weapon. On the blade, which measures ten inches from hilt to point, is engraved the figures of a number of wild beasts, Indians, etc.

Rev. F. T. Latho, who recently closed a successful series of meetings at the Universalist church, has been called to the pastorate. Mr. Latho is a forcible speaker and an able advocate of his church. All who have heard him speak in high terms of him as a preacher. The church here has done well to secure his services. During the recent meeting the following persons joined the church: Willie Johnson, Tom Brasher, D. C. Cary, J. T. Williamson, P. W. Brasher and wife and Herschel Penhew.

The closed sewer on Seventeenth street has no opening west of Main street and during the late rains Mr. H. D. Wallace's premises became submerged with the water that had no way to escape. A pond formed in his front yard that cut off travel to the street by the front way. Mr. Wallace complained to the Council and finally got Mr. Gilliland to take an interest in the matter and have the water drained away as well as the situation would allow. The property of other citizens in the vicinity was also overflowed, much to their inconvenience. The sewer will have to be provided with belt drainage pipes or considerable damage will be done.

DEATHS.

Miss Clem Buckner died at the residence of Mr. S. E. Trice yesterday morning in the 53rd year of her age. She died of nervous prostration, from which she had been suffering for several weeks. She was the youngest daughter of John Buckner, long a prominent citizen of this place, and was a native of Hopkinsville. Her sister, Mrs. S. E. Trice, is now the only surviving member of a large family. Deceased was a useful and devoted member of the Baptist church and will be missed in works of charity and kindness. Her funeral will be preached at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the Baptist church.

Mr. W. S. Poindester, cashier of the Franklin Bank, of Clarksville, died Friday, aged 60 years. A deep-seated cold resulting from an attack of influenza was responsible for his taking off. He was one of the prominent and wealthy men of Clarksville. He was twice married and leaves a family consisting of wife and four children. He belonged to the Methodist church and was a consistent Christian.

Col. Thos. J. Megibben, the widely known distiller and horse breeder, of Cynthiana, Ky., died Friday aged 59 years. At one time Mr. Megibben was worth nearly $1,000,000 but he lost the greater portion of his large fortune and at the time of his death was not worth more than one-tenth as much, though he had $100,000 insurance on his life.

Lucas McClellan, near Fairview, Wednesday, of dropsy of the heart, aged 23 years. Deceased had been sick a long time and had been unable to rest unless sitting in a chair for several weeks prior to his death.

Col. Jas. H. Stuart, a well known drummer for Bamberger, Bloom & Co., Louisville, died at Louisville Friday, aged 56 years.

Col. J. L. Carrington, proprietor of the Exchange Hotel and Ballard House at Richmond, Va., died Thursday morning.

Infant of Jas. Coombs, near Casky, Wednesday.

COLORED.

Spencer Bell, a well-known colored man, died at 7 o'clock Saturday morning, aged 58 years. He had been an invalid for three or four months. He belonged to the Methodist church and the Union Benevolent Society and Odd Fellows. He was a charter member of both of these orders, and was buried with them jointly Sunday afternoon. His funeral was preached at the C. M. E. church.

Eliza Hatchet, a few miles north of the city, Saturday, of erysipelas, aged 71 years.

Four-year-old child of Sam Grady in the city of influenza.

Infant of Charles McKee in the city Saturday.

MATRIMONIAL.

Rev. B. J. Garrett, a prominent colored minister of the Baptist church, who is pastor of two churches in this county, one at Poe Dee and one at Newstead, was united in marriage on the 23rd at 5 o'clock p. m. to Miss Elvira Dulin, at the residence of the bride's father on the Greenville road just outside of the city limits. Miss Dulin is one of the school teachers of this country, and is holding a first class certificate. She is one of the most intelligent young ladies of her race. They will locate at Poe Dee, Ky. The writer wishes them a long and happy life. Rev. Jas. L. Allensworth officiated; he is famous for marrying ministers, and has married more ministers of his denomination than any minister in the county.

SCHISMATICS.

Five couples were married under one ceremony at St. Albion's Catholic Church in Davison county last Tuesday. All the young people are Catholics and live on farms in Davison county. By a coincidence they are all neighbors and intimate friends. The parish priest, Father W. P. McCarthy, officiated. The five brides were all dressed alike and came in one carriage and the five grooms in another. There were ushers but no bridesmaids, as there would have been so many that they would have been in each other's way.

Mr. J. P. Boggess and Miss Jennie West, were married at Kirksmansville, at the residence of F. M. West, on the 16th inst. The couple left for Pensacola, Fla., where Mr. Boggess is located in the interest of a Nashville publishing house.

Mr. Edward P. Morris and Miss Madge Ellis, the adopted daughter of Mr. I. F. Ellis, were married Wednesday evening of last week in this city. Mr. Morris is in the employ of the L. & N. Railroad and is a clever gentleman.

John Jackson and Miss Calvert, a daughter of Wm. Calvert, both of Caldwell county, eloped to Clarksville Wednesday night and were married.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

COLORED.

Ben J. Garnett to Elvay Dulin. S. J. Leavell to Margaret L. Bell. Aaron Sybert to Carrie Barnett.

Without the means at hand for combatting it, a cold may prove more dangerous than the small pox. No family is safe unless provided for such an emergency. In sudden attacks of cold, cough, asthma, etc., Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is an invaluable specific.

Bill Nye, the humorist, and James Whitcomb Riley, the poet, will fill a joint engagement to lecture at Bowling Green next Friday night.

Good News About Patti.

The engagement of the Grand Italian Opera Company, at the Amphitheatre Auditorium, March 6, 7 and 8, 1890, will be the greatest musical event ever known to the amusement annals of the city of Louisville and the State of Kentucky. The management of the Auditorium, wishing the engagement of, not only to be an advertisement of, but a benefit to the city of Louisville, had this clause put in the contract: "That Louisville is to be the only place in the United States south of the Ohio river where the company will appear," which will be the means of bringing a vast number of visitors to our beautiful city.

As there has been so much curiosity to know what the repertoire would be and also to know in what opera Madame Patti would sing, the management of the Auditorium has taken pains to select one which will surely please the most fastidious musical taste, and which is as follows:

SEMERAMIDE—Rossini, with Adelina Patti, "The Queen of Song," as Semiramis.

HUONORS—Meyerbeer, with Tannhauser "The King of Tenors" and Madame Albani in the cast.

OTELLO—The master pieces of Verdi, with Tannhauser and Nordica in the cast.

The above named operas constitute the season, and the prices of season tickets are as follows:

No. 1 to 1054 inclusive, $15 for the season.

No. 1055 to 2580 inclusive, $12 for the season.

No. 2581 to 3000 inclusive, $10 for the season.

And as the subscription sale which began January 2nd, and which is now in progress at the office of James B. Camp, business manager, 22 Schurman Block, 4th and Jefferson street, has so far exceeded the expectation of the management, they have concluded to give a matinee, Saturday afternoon, March 8th, 1890, on which occasion will be given an elaborate production of the very popular opera, FAUST—Gounod, with Madame Emma Albani as Marguerite, and Signor Ravelli as Faust.

The prices for the matinee will be as follows:

Seats 1 to 1054 inclusive $3.00 each

Seats 1055 to 2580 " 2.50 "

Seats 2581 to 3000 " 2.00 "

The public can rest assured that the operas will be mounted on a scale of magnificence never before witnessed in the city of Louisville. Those who have already secured their season tickets are showing great wisdom and good judgment, and those who put off until the day of the engagement to secure their seats must not blame the management if all the seats are sold at that time, and will consequently be debarred from hearing the "Queen of Song" and the "King of Tenors," because no standing room will be sold. Up to this time almost as many season tickets have been sold out of Louisville as have been sold in the city.

McMinnville, Tenn. writes: From experience in my family, Dr. H. Moxley's Lemon Elixir has few, if any equals, and no superiors in medicine, for the regulation of the liver, stomach and bowels. Dr. H. Moxley's Lemon Hot Drops are superior to any remedies we have ever been able to get for throat and lung diseases. W. H. Moxley, Pres. Nat'l Bank.

NOTICE—There is a fraudulent Lemon Elixir on the market—a whisky substitute, a Blind Tiger drink. See that you get Dr. H. Moxley's Lemon Elixir, an honest, reliable medicine.

TOBACCO NEWS.

LOUISVILLE TOBACCO MARKET.

Finished by Glover & Burnett.

Sales on our market for the week just closed amount to 3,202 hds., with receipts for the same period of 2,140 hds. Sales on our market since January 1st, amount to 5,661 hds. Sales of the crop of 1889 on our market to this date amount to 6,483 hds.

The offering of new dark tobacco continues remarkably small for the time of year. The market shows recent advances for old dark tobacco both leaf and lugs and we find it proper to make some change in quotations. The following quotations fairly represent our market for dark tobacco the crop of 1888.

Trash 75 to $1.25.

Common to Medium Lugs $1.25 to 2.25.

Dark Lugs Extra quality $2.50 to 4.00.

Common Leaf $3.00 to 4.00.

Medium to Good Leaf $5.00 to 5.50.

Good Leaf length $6.00 to 7.00.

Rich Wrappery Tobacco $7.50 to 12.00.

Travelers may learn a lesson from Mr. C. D. Cone, a prominent attorney of Parker, Dakota, who says: "I never leave home without taking a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with me and on many occasions have been able to relieve the sufferer and have never known it to fail. For sale by Buckner Leavelle."
